STATE ST. ENDEAVOR HAS UNIQUE MEETING

Fifty members of the Christian Endeavor society of the State Street Presbyterian church attended a meeting last night at the Kiwanis cabin on Lake Mauvasterre. Lunch was served at 5:30 o'clock and at 6:30 a devotional service was conducted. Rev. Glen Schillerstrom gave the young people an interesting and helpful address on "The Third Side of Us."

The Christian Endeavors gathered around the fireplace and the lights were turned out during the service.

LOVETT FUNERAL TO BE CONDUCTED IN CHAPIN TODAY

The remains of Mrs. Mary C. Lovett, former resident of this county, who died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Carter, in Toledo, Ia., arrived at Murrayville at 7 o'clock Monday morning and were taken to the Thompson Funeral home. Services were held at Toledo Sunday, and the body brought overland.

Funeral services will be held at two o'clock this afternoon from the Chapin M. E. church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment will be in the Chapin cemetery.
Mary C. Rice was born Feb. 3, 1850, at Booneville, Mo., a daughter of John and Sarah Rice. She came with her family to Chapin during the Civil war, and the party drove through the army lines to get to Illinois. At the age of 21 she was married to Samuel Lovett, a Civil war soldier, who preceded her in death in 1906.

To this union five children were born. One son, Oliver Louis, died at 11 years of age, and another son, Howard, died on his 13th birthday. Mrs. Lovett is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Charles Carter of Toledo, Ia., Mrs. Edward Manes of Quincy and Mrs. John Peek of Garwin, Ia. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Amanda Filcox of Coffeyville, Kan., ten grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Anton Goldstein of Franklin was among the callers in this city Monday.

MICHIGAN HOLDS TOP IN BIG TEN

Wolves to Meet Ohio State in 28th Renewal of Grid Rivalry—Yale Brings Team to Chicago—California at Northwestern.

By WILLIAM WEEKES
Chicago, Oct. 12. (AP)—Western conference football will offer a wide variety of entertainment Saturday as three championship-hopeful eleven get into action, and Yale and the University of California's southern branch send their teams into the section.

Michigan, which shared the 1930 championship with Northwestern and is ranked as a big possibility for top honors this season, will meet Ohio State, the leader of the darkhorse group, at Ann Arbor in the twenty-eighth renewal of their series. Purdue, which was defeated by Northwestern last year, will meet Wisconsin at Madison.

Yale will send its squad into the midwest for the first time to meet Alonzo Stagg's fourth University of Chicago eleven, and to honor the "old man," who was one of Eli's first and greatest athletes. Northwestern, which was defeated by the University of California, southern branch, before breaking into its Big Ten schedule next week.

Indiana, which Saturday, will tackle Iowa's battered squad at Iowa City, Illinois, will meet Bradley College, while Minnesota will have an open date through which to rest after its journey to Palo Alto, Calif., where it was defeated by Stanford Saturday.

The argument between Northwestern and Notre Dame got nowhere Saturday as they skidded and slid through rain and mud in Soldier Field to a scoreless tie. Fumbles, a total of 19, wrecked any chance of scoring.

Michigan won its opening Big Ten encounter from Chicago, but found the Maroons surprisingly tough and succeeded out a 13 to 7 decision, while Ohio State's Buckeyes, with the breaks going against them, lost to Vanderbilt, 26 to 21. Ohio outgained the Commodores but penalties and a couple of misdirected forward passes proved its undoing.

Illinois' sophomore experiment gave Saturday a 13 to 7 decision, while Purdue, which was defeated by the veteran Bollinger outfit, 7 to 0. Fred Hecker, a sophomore halfback, proved the spark for Purdue's attack after he replaced Ed Rusk, leading ground gainer of the Big Ten last season.

Stanford and Minnesota were far out of their ways to suffer defeats, the Hawkeyes losing to Texas A. & M., 29 to 0, at Dallas and the Gophers bowing to Stanford's final period assault, 13 to 0. Wisconsin found Alabama Puck unexpectedly difficult and obtained a 7-7 tie when Joe Luntz took a kickoff and ran the length of the field for a score.

The Big Ten standings, including conference games only:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Michigan	1	0	1.000
Purdue	1	0	1.000
Northwestern	0	0	0.000
Indiana	0	0	0.000
Ohio State	0	0	0.000
Minnesota	0	0	0.000
Iowa	0	0	0.000
Wisconsin	0	0	0.000
Illinois	1	0	1.000
Chicago	0	1	0.000

MENTAL TROUBLES BOTHER BLUEBOYS

Little More Headwork, Coach Harmon Believes, Would Have Won Homecoming Tilt—Boys Fail to Explain Fumbles.

Mental trouble, namely that of calling the right play at the right time, was one of the biggest drawbacks to a victory on Homecoming day. Coach Bill Harmon said last night as he held the regular Monday evening post mortem. He blamed the lapse of brain work for one of Monmouth's touchdowns, and for the failure of the Blueboys to score more often.

There was one good point about the losses, however, for none of the Blueboys' tricks were disclosed to four scouts from Knox college, who were in the stands, and the DeKalb Teachers, who will be the next opponent for the local club, didn't have a chance to see any of the more fancy plays.

Of course, fumbling had its part in the tie score, and poor defense while the kickers were getting away their punts had a part. Consequently, the quarterbacks will be given some lessons in field generalship this week, the defense will be a little more push will be given the offensive.

There were no serious injuries to the varsity players. Capt. Don Overbeary didn't don football togs last night because of stiffened evening slipping, but he will be ready in another day or so. Overbeary injured his leg slightly when he kicked one of the Monmouth players while trying to get off a punt.

Slim Mansfield, second string end, was in the hospital Saturday night, and part of Sunday due to an injured wing, and probably will be off the squad for one or two weeks. Otherwise, the squad came through the game without injuries serious enough to hurt preparations for the DeKalb game, which will be played either on Friday night or Saturday afternoon. Coach Harmon has not received details from the Teachers as to when the game will be played.

The coach issued a warning last night that the team will have to play harder against the Northern Teachers than they did against Monmouth if they hope to stop Mustafa and his huskies. Mustafa is the boy who beat the Blueboys last year in a wild last minute dash, turning a 7 to 6 victory for the home club into a 13 to 7 win for the Teachers.

Visitors from surrounding rural communities in the city Saturday included Hubert Rogers, Thomas Hemmings and Cliff Davis.

ROCKETS PREPARE FOR HOMECOMING

New Center Needed When Geanetos Comes Out of Kincaid Game—With Partial Fracture of Fibula—St. Theresa Comes Here.

With homecoming but a few days away, Coach Wallace Baptist said last night was forced to make his first shift of the season because of injuries, moving Stereulz, former halfback, into the center position to take care of a spot left vacant when Geanetos, varsity center last year and this year, came out of the Kincaid game with a partial fracture of the fibula. Stereulz played the position for most of the game at Kincaid and held down the position well.

St. Theresa of Decatur, coached by Art Long, former Millikin university star, will furnish the opposition for the homecoming game. Reports reaching here are that the Decatur parochials are hitting a fast stride this season.

Route clearly had the edge on the Kincaid team, Coach Baptist said last night, scoring 16 first downs to none for the home team. DiCenso did some beautiful work as field general, and the cleared big holes in the Kincaid forwards and secondary defense. There was only lapse of memory during the game, that coming when Kincaid sprung the old Statue of Liberty play for a 60 yard run to a touchdown.

The team was beginning to get overconfidence, but Coach Baptist said last night that there is no room to feel confident of a victory over the Decatur club.

SETTLEMENT OF THE MANCHURIAN QUESTION ASKED

The Chinese president also expressed hope that the league would properly punish Japan, the ground it occupied Chinese territory in Manchuria without justification and refused to abide by decisions of the league.

Speaking both as head of the government and generalissimo of its army and navy, Chiang emphasized that China did not appear before the league as a supplicant seeking protection, but because as a member it was morally obligated to lay the matter before the international body as a peace measure.

The speech was believed to indicate Chinese officials were waiting league action before taking further steps in the controversy.

FARBMAN'S VIOLIN RECITAL PLEASES

A Jacksonville audience was fortunate last night to hear a pleasing and fascinating violin recital rendered by Harry Farbmán at Music Hall at MacMurray college.

The charm and individuality of Grieg's Sonata, Opus 8, was brought to the minutest detail. The Symphony Espagnole by Laio, a really great work for the violin, was played with all the Spanish touch of temperament and breath that this masterpiece demands.

Mr. Farbmán's closing group seemed so delicately chosen to fit a mixed audience which call for the highest in finger and bow dexterity seemed as facile matter to this artist.

Mr. Farbmán closed his group with a dazzling Gubini's dance and responded to the enthusiastic applause by adding two numbers.

THREE CLOSE DECISIONS OF COURT STAND

quest of the owner of the boat for a review.

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and other labor unions at Chicago lost in their effort to have the court review a permanent injunction prohibiting them from striking to otherwise interfering with the Western Union Telegraph company in the installation of its service in buildings there.

Other decisions which the court refused to reconsider were:

That sustaining the California Railroad Commission in requiring the Santa Fe and Great Northern to construct a union passenger station at Los Angeles;

That classifying certain chocolate sold by the Hershey and other chocolate companies as taxable as candy under state revenue acts;

At two decisions regarding the fees of lawyers who aided in recovering $100,000 given away by elderly Jackson Barlett, an incompetent Creek Indian.
